

Rules for participation in a language course: English for Entrepreneurship
(code:4172027122)

Erasmus + Blended Intensive Programmes

Action: KA131

Coordinating Institution: Nicolaus copernicus University in Toruń

Partner Institutions: University of Antwerp,
University of Cyprus
University of Eastern Finland
University in Rijeka

General rules

§ 1

1. The main aim of the course is to develop legal and business English communication skills and foster student collaboration and teamwork in international context. Students will get familiar with the business and legal aspects of establishing start-ups in different countries, and in international teams will invent their own business idea.

2. The course is aimed at full-time students in the second or third year of the first-cycle (bachelor) degree programmes of Law or Business, and/or students of other programmes, interested to develop business and legal English skills and knowledge as well as practical aspects of entrepreneurship. A minimum B2 level of English language competency is required (CEFR). Applicants will have to take a language competency test provided by the Coordinating Institution in the course of recruitment.

3. Students eligible for the course are students from the Coordinating Institution of the Project, i.e., Nicolaus Copernicus University ( max. 4 students ), and students from Partner Institutions to the Project, i.e., University of Antwerp, University of Cyprus, University of Eastern Finland. and University of Rijeka ( min.5, max. 6 students ).

3.1 Student stay in Toruń during the physical component of the course is co-funded by Erasmus + short - term blended mobility funding, KA 131.

3.2 Students at Nicolaus Copernicus University, who are not Erasmus + students, have to cover stay and accommodation costs themselves.

4. Teaching staff will be provided by the above mentioned partner universities.

4.1 Teacher stay during the physical component of the course is co-funded by Erasmus + teaching mobility funding. (STA)

5. Project duration: obligatory online module: 1 March - 31 May, 2023, physical module: 24-28 July, 2023.

6. The total workload of the course is 90 hours, including :

6.1 30 hours of the online module (1 synchronous session of three teaching hours per week held on the NCU MS Teams platform from 1 March till 31 May, 2023 ) to be delivered by language teachers from the Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń,

6.2. 30 hours of the physical module to be held at Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń and to be delivered by language teachers from the University of Eastern Finland, University of Cyprus, University of Antwerp, and University of Rijeka and,

6.3 30 hours of self- study (self-study materials will be provided on the NCU 'Moodle' teaching platform ).

7. 3 ECTS credits are awarded for the course. Students will receive a transcript of records. In order to include the credits in the curriculum at the home institution, participants need a signed learning agreement with the responsible person at the home institution.

§ 2

1. In order to participate in the course a student has to:

1.1 apply for an Erasmus+ funding at their home university,

1.2 fill in, and send to the Coordinating Institution by 15 January 2023 the following documents:

1.2.1 an application form with personal data,

1.2.2 a declaration of participation in the Project

1.2.4 a certificate of a student status ( the second or third year of the first-cycle (bachelor) degree programmes of Law or Business, or other programmes ),

and

1.3 take the English language competency test on the 'Moodle' teaching platform at the Coordinating Institution (NCU).

2. Once the Project is finished the participant is required to complete a Project Competency Assessment form.

§ 3

1. Participation in classes is free of charge.

2. Participants need to cover the costs of stay (food and accommodation) during the physical component of the course, held from 24 July till 28 July 2023, from their Erasmus+ funding (date of arrival is 23 July 2023)

3. Participants have a right to:

3.1 develop competences in the use of Business and Legal English,

3.2. express opinions on the teaching and course organization on an ongoing basis.

4. Participants are obliged to:

4.1 take a language competence test on the 'Moodle' teaching platform of the Organizing Institution,

4.2. attend classes, sign attendance lists and complete tasks on time during the course,

4.3. immediately notify the course organizers about the change of personal and contact details, and about the possible resignation from participation in the course.

5. The rights and obligations of a course participant shall expire on the day of completing the course or deleting from the list of course participants.

§ 4

1. Teachers are obliged to:

1.1 inform the participants about the conditions of participation in the course during the first class,

1.2 assess overall learning outcomes.

§ 5

1. Students are admitted for the course if they:

1.1 complete all the necessary stages of recruitment required by their home university,

1.2 take the online English language competency test, provided by the Project Coordinating Institution (NCU) in the course of the recruitment process, and have a B2 level of English confirmed (CEFR),

1.3 fill in and sign all the necessary documents, required in a recruitment process, and send them to the Coordinating Institution in due time.

2. To successfully complete a course a student has to:

2.1 attend 80% of the online module classes and 100 % of the physical module classes,

2.2 actively participate in classes,

2.3 pass an exit online module vocabulary test on the 'moodle' education platform,

2.4 prepare a business pitch team presentation, and

2.5 write a business agreement.

3. After the end of the course, the Project participant is obliged to fill in the Competence Assessment form.

§ 6

1. Students can be removed from the list of participants if they:

1.1 resign,

1.2 fail to comply with the course regulations.